I beg respectfully to inform the Collectors of Coins, that in future in cataloguing Medals and Medalets I shall notice only Proofs and those which are poor or damaged—leaving it to be understood that all others are in satisfactory condition, requiring no qualification.

I take this opportunity of stating (for the guidance of those just beginning to collect,) that when buying Coins at Auction Sales, they should bid for each Coin separately—in a rule ALL Coins, excepting such as are catalogued as SETS—are offered separately and NOT in a lot, no matter how many it may contain.

Respectfully,
